The Faculty of Economics is the University of Ljubljana's largest member, with more than 6,000 full-time and part-time undergraduate and graduate students. Founded in 1946, the Faculty is an important pillar of the Slovenian research and business community. It has developed a strong international network with institutions worldwide. Both EQUIS and AACSB accreditations rank the FELU among the best business schools.

The city of Ljubljana, situated between the Alps and the Adriatic Sea, is classified as a mid-sized European city, but it has preserved its small-town friendliness and relaxed atmosphere while providing all the facilities of a modern capital. It is the political and cultural heart of the Slovenian nation, safe and particularly charming in summer.

Distances between places in Slovenia are short, which makes Ljubljana a perfect base for exploring the Slovenia's diverse beauty.
